

Sample Consent Policy for Clubs and Events

1. Only touch people if you ask and get permission first. Silence is Not Consent: if they don't say "yes" then it's a "no."
2. All erotic activities must receive explicit prior permission rather than through body language or previous behavior with you. This includes touching breasts, butts, or genitals, and engaging in roleplay, power exchange, or sensation play.
3. If someone touches you without permission, please tell them "No or Stop." Feel free to inform designated staff members about the interaction.
4. Only join in if you're explicitly invited by all current participants. Don't base consent on what you see someone do with other people.
5. Anyone can withdraw consent, make a nonverbal safe sign, or use the universal safeword "Red" at any time. Once consent is withdrawn, you must stop immediately.
6. Informed consent means you must disclose any risks, including STI status, prior to erotic activities.
7. If someone is obviously impaired, they cannot consent. Please inform the designated staff members if you see someone who is obviously impaired.
8. Do not pressure, force, coerce, or manipulate someone into consenting.
9. Don't "out" anyone as kinky or non-monogamous to their family, friends, co-workers, or anyone else. Get permission before using someone's first/last name in person or online with others.
10. Don't take photos unless you have explicit consent from everyone who is in the photo, and are in an area of the venue that specifically allows photos.

Disclaimer: Every reasonable effort will be made to enforce this policy, but our organization makes no representations or guarantees about its ability to do so, and all attendees retain full, sole responsibility for their safety and the safety of others with whom they interact.

NCSF materials are provided for informational purposes only and do not constitute legal advice.